An exceptionally high warmth-to-weight ratio makes the Clagstone Sweater a winner for Sizing Chart: travel. Whether you're on a bicycle tour of Banff or a bus tour of London, you'll look sharp and stay warm in this handsome Quarter-Zip Sweater from Royal Robbins. Its richly textured blend of wool, cotton, acrylic and poly gives you all the insulation of a thick sweater in a lightweight, bulk-free, packable knit that takes up very little space in your suitcase. And its timeless styling looks great with both dress slacks and jeans. 9" zipper.
